Seekers GUIDELINES

Good Guidelines for Good Times!

Our first and only rule for being together at Logos is that we are to treat every person as a child of God—each person is of infinite worth and deserves to be treated with respect and courtesy and kindness at all times.

In order to help us understand more about what this means, here are four simple, but important guidelines for all students and staff to remember:

- 1. WE TAKE CARE OF EACH OTHER. This means we don't hit, kick, put-down or laugh at, or knowingly hurt anyone. We appreciate one another.
- 2. WE TAKE CARE OF OUR THINGS. This means we are careful of our own belongings as well as the belongings of others. We don't knowingly break things or destroy other people's property at the church. We clean up after ourselves and repair or replace things we break.
- 3. WE KEEP OUR SCHEDULE. This means we are on time to our classes. We call if we are going to be late or if we are going to be absent from Seekers or from an assigned Sunday worship leadership responsibilities.
- 4. WE HAVE GREAT FUN . . . at no one's expense! We practice good sportsmanship. We encourage, support and cheer for each other whenever we play, study, sing or share a meal!

I have read and agree to adhere to the discipline policy followed by Seekers.
